again outbatted to-day, but managed to beat Springfield by 9 to 7 by taking advantage of every opportunity on the bases and in the field.

It was the best exhibition Washington brains, which is required if you want to win in the big league.

The near-victory of Springfield was due to the fact that Tom Hughes went completely to pieces in the third round, and after giving a pass was hit for two doubles and four singles, which fusillade resulted in four runs.

Washington's runs were accumulated slowly, but persistently, and the uphili fight after Springfield gained its big lead in the third was far better than anything else along that line this season.

Edwards was landed on for four hits, which netted three runs. Capt. Walker opened with a double, Dalton followed with a three-sacker, and Thom and Hoff cracked out neat singles. After that the Lafayette twirler settled down and had the Virginia basemen guessless along that line this season.

M. M. PARKER WILL PRESIDE.

Chosen as Chairman for "District Day" at Jamestown,

Myron M. Parker, ex-Commissioner of the District, will preside at "District of Columbia Day" at the Jamestown Exposition. Commissioner H. B. F. Macfarland and Mr. Justice Robb. will deliver the chief address, and another speaker, probably the governor of Virginia, will also deliver an address. The date will be June 11, the day following "Georgia Day," at which time President Roosevelt will speak.

These items were decided upon yesterday at a meeting of the special commitday at a meeting of the special committee appointed by the District Commissioners to arrange the programme of exercises for the occasion. It was also decided that on the morning of June II, at Jamestown, there would be a reception given by the committee, in conjunction with the Commissioners of the District, It was also decided that the services of the Marine Band should be obtained for the day, if that should be convenient for all concerned.
